

HOW DOES YOUR CHILD'S IEP MEASURE UP?

Is your child's evaluation data up to date and detailed enough to show his or her current levels in all academic, communication, emotional and functional living areas?	YES	NO
Is the evaluation data used to then write the present levels of performance on the IEP?	YES	NO
Are each of the goals and objectives SMART? (Specific, measurable, action based, realistic and relevant, and time limited)	YES	NO
Do the goals and objectives represent progress from what was written for the previous year?	YES	NO
Is the curriculum that will be used based on scientific research and evidence that it is effective for students with the type of learning difficulties experienced by your child?	YES	NO
Does the IEP show how progress will be monitored and reported to you and how often?	YES	NO
Does the IEP show how much time your child will spend in general education, and in any needed therapy services?	YES	NO
Is it clear to you how it will be determined that your child has met the goals and objectives?	YES	NO
Does the IEP designate the person responsible for implementing each of the services that are listed and the IEP manager who will coordinate all the services?	YES	NO
Does the IEP indicate if related services like Speech, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, Adaptive P.E., Social Work or Counseling, etc. will be pull-out or consultative?	YES	NO

HOW DOES YOUR CHILD'S IEP MEASURE UP?

Did the team discuss if any supports are needed for the classroom teacher in order to carry out the goals and objectives?	YES	NO
Are any necessary accommodations or modifications to the curriculum, assignments, homework, or school rules listed in the IEP?	YES	NO
Does the IEP tell how your child will participate in state and district-wide testing?	YES	NO
If your child is age 14 and a half or over, did your IEP meeting begin with a discussion about transition services and the results of transition assessments?	YES	NO
Have you talked about grading accommodations and diploma options?	YES	NO

If you need help in understanding any of the questions on the checklist or would like to have an individual consultation, call Family Matters at 866-436-7842 or email info@fmptic.org.

Family Matters is not a legal services agency and cannot provide legal advice or legal representation. Information received from Family Matters is not intended as legal advice and should not be used as a substitution for legal advice.

The contents of this document were developed under a grant from the US Department of Education, #H328M200072. However, those contents do not necessarily represent the policy of the US Department of Education, and you should not assume endorsement by the Federal Government. Project Officer David Emenheiser.